

JAPAN WEEKLY KICKSTART

AGM update; yuutai correction protection

Summary of the week

TOPIX: 3,881.96 (-1.7%) / NK225: 66,020.04 (-0.9%)

- Top sectors: Insurance, Real Estate
- Bottom sectors: Non-Ferrous Metals, Communications

In this week's Japan Weekly Kickstart we focus on the current AGM season in Japan. As can be seen in Exhibit 1 below, the peak period for AGMs is 23-26 June in terms of the number of companies holding meetings. In Japan Portfolio Strategy: Finding multiple ways to win again: CY2026 1H corporate governance playbook (13 February 2026), we screened for companies that were in the bottom decile for AGM approval ratings during the CY2025 AGM season. So far, 10 out of 12 companies in the screen saw improvements in their approval rating this year (Exhibit 5).

- Low AGM approval screen: Since the last AGM season, CY2025 low AGM approval rating screen outperformed the TOPIX by 13ppts until the start of the Iran conflict (Exhibit 4). However, they have not participated so far in the AI-driven rally since April. We believe that low AGM approvals are a strong predictor of shareholder-friendly activity going into the following year's AGM.
- Yuutai*-related stock performance since 3 June confirms their defensive qualities: Since we published Japan Portfolio Strategy: Unequal equities - How do stocks with shareholder benefits perform during major market corrections? (3 June 2026), our yuutai plus dividends screen (Exhibit 8) has out-performed our no yuutai, no dividends screen (Exhibit 9) by 12ppts, and has out-performed TOPIX by 4ppts (Exhibit 6).
- Domestic demand defensives outperformed AI and Tech: The best-performing indices during this week's correction included Food and Beverage (+3% wow) and Retail (+3% wow), while worst-performers included System Integrators (-7% wow) and Apple Supply Chain (-6% wow).
- Domestic Institutions and Individuals were net buyers, Foreigners were net sellers: According to the latest data from the TSE, for the week 1-5 June, Domestic institutions and Individuals net bought ¥214bn and ¥298bn of TSE Prime cash equities respectively, while Foreigners net sold -¥65bn.

Appendix One - Methodology

Our original analysis which has now been integrated into the Japan Weekly Kickstart format focuses on sector and thematic performance of the more liquid portion of the Japanese equities market. This is defined as any Japanese stocks that trade over US$20mn advt. We believe that a significant number of our clients have liquidity constraints which require them to limit their stand-alone positions to this particular universe. By our calculations, there are 271 stocks in Japan that trade above this liquidity threshold as of Dec 17 2025.

We have sub-divided this universe into 45 equal weighted indices that focus on either MSCI-defined sectors and sub-sectors, or areas of thematic focus that stretch across multiple sectors (such as High Dividend Yield or Gaming). For these thematic indices, we have relied either on quantitative measures and/or GS Equity analyst input on component selection. We hope to expand the number of indices over time and would welcome client feedback on any areas of thematic interest we should focus on.

We track the performance of the equal-weighted sector, sub-sector and thematic indices over time and also measure the spread between the best-performing and the worst-performing stocks within the index. For example, Exhibit 37 illustrates both the volatility of the mean weekly performance in the liquid SPE index (the dark blue line), and the weekly Best-Worst spreads within the index (the light blue cloud).

Exhibit 37: SPE index 52 week equal-weighted cumulative weekly performance and best-worst spreads

Source: FactSet, Data compiled by Goldman Sachs Global Investment Research

The criteria we have used in our analysis of the liquid Japanese equities market can be summarized as follows:

- Total universe consists of Japanese stocks with a 6-month adv of over US$20mn (271 stocks as of Dec 17 2025).
- The universe will be refreshed every year.
- Indices are all equal-weighted.
- Index component selection is based on MSCI sector and sub-sector definitions, quantitative factors and/or GS single-stock Equity Analyst guidance.
- The same stock can appear in multiple indices.
- The Best-Worst spread is based on the difference between the best performing and worst performing component within each index.
- The first 12 months of trading of any new listing are not included in the index performance.

We anticipate that the number of indices will be adjusted over time and would welcome any client feedback on other areas within the liquid Japan equities universe we should be focused on.
