

China Restaurants: Monthly Tracker: May update: Trends turn softer but divergence across brands; FMD high base effect kicking in

May SSSG performance was sequentially softer from Apr, with moderate demand during the Labor Day holiday and softness in consumption sentiment/weather headwinds. By brand, Haidilao's table turn turned to slightly negative growth yoy (vs. yoy stable growth during Labor Day), implying low-mid 80% recovery compared to the 2019 level (slightly higher than Apr yet remains below the 1Q level); Tai Er recorded SSSG of low DD%, slightly lower than Apr with weather headwinds during Labor Day (SSSG up MSD%-HSD%), but post holiday SSSG has picked up. For freshly made drinks (FMD), high base impact has started to kick in, and brands have generally seen SSSG pressure in May on a yoy basis. We continue to see performance divergence across brands, e.g. Nayuki per store sales decline further expanded to 24% yoy (vs. -11% in Apr), while leading brands were more resilient with support from category expansion/new products. On the bright side, multiple brands commented that delivery mix declined sequentially and/or on a yoy basis. On pricing, our tracker suggests more pricing activities were introduced in coffee from freshly made tea brands (e.g. Guming launched weekly Rmb9.9 coupon, Mixue launched a buy-one-get-one free coupon for stores that introduced coffee machines), to educate customers and drive dine-in sales; Luckin also launched a daily Rmb9.9 offering for select SKUs across categories. All said, promotion magnitude/scale remains disciplined in our view. For restaurant brands we track, Jiumaojiu and Haidilao both saw stable pricing trends.

In this note, we provide updates on a variety of high-frequency indicators, including air traffic run rate, and commodity inflation. We also include competition environment updates, key company news and key reports published over the past month for covered China Restaurants names and peers.

Brand performance

1. Haidilao (6862.HK; Neutral): Haidilao's average table turn turned to slightly negative in May, vs. a MSD% increase in Apr from a low base. Management believes the calendar shift of the Dragon Boat festival (1 day in May in 2025) was a headwind for May performance. Based on our calculation, this implies a ~3.8x table turn, or 3.5x~3.6x post Labor Day holiday which is a similar table turn level compared to Apr. This implies a low-mid 80% recovery level compared to 2019, slightly better than ~80% for Apr but remains lower than 1Q. Haidilao opened 4 company stores and 1 franchise store, and closed 4 company stores in May.

GS read: Table turn performance remained relatively soft, and post-holiday growth slightly decelerated (vs. stable table turn in Labor Day), but we believe market expectation has also come down considering softness in overall consumption/weather headwinds. YTD average table turn increase of LSD% is slightly tracking behind GSe which assumes 4% per store sales growth yoy.

2. Jiumaojiu (9922.HK, Buy): Tai Er recorded LDD% SSSG in ML China, which slightly declined from Apr yet remained above the 1Q level (10.9% SSSG in ML China). This implies a post holiday acceleration compared to MSD%-HSD% SSSG during the Labor Day holiday when rainy weather in South China was a headwind. New model stores continued to drive growth, while old models continued to see positive SSSG, also recording LSD%-MSD% SSSG in May. For Jiumaojiu and Song, pressure lingered and SSSG trends remained similar to 1Q (-20%/-11% for Song/Jiumaojiu respectively).

GS read: Tai Er continues to see solid SSSG performance despite the fluid consumption in May, and the post-holiday improvement shows momentum of its new model/fresh product strategy. That said, Song/Jiumaojiu brands are still seeing pressure despite their base being sequentially easier compared to 1Q. Compared to GSe, Tai Er/Jiumaojiu are largely on track, while Song is tracking behind our 1H26 expectation.

3. Gourmet Master (2723.TW; Neutral): ML China sales decline remained significant at -46% yoy (Apr: -48%), with store count sequentially stable at 290-300 which implies a >30% yoy decline and transition to franchised stores. In the US market, sales growth has been sequentially accelerating in Apr-May (sales in local currency up 4%/8% yoy) post the weather headwinds in 1Q26, and the company expects store count to reach 95 (3 expected to be opened in Jun)/>100 by mid/end of 2026.

GS read: The sales decline in Apr-May at high 40% in ML China is tracking behind GSe (~-40% yoy decline). While in the US market, Apr-May sales growth is slightly ahead of GSe (MSD% growth in local currency), and store openings have been on track with GSe.

Exhibit 1: Haidilao/Tai Er May SSSG decelerated; FMD players generally seeing SSSG pressure due to a tough base

Competitive environment

In freshly made drink, our tracker suggests further normalization in delivery subsidy; this also echoes Meituan's comment on meaningfully improving food delivery UE in 1Q26 vs. 4Q25, and April/May trending better-than-expected at slight profits. On pricing, with freshly made tea brands expanding in the coffee category, favorable prices (i.e. promotions) are being offered to customers, e.g. Guming launched a Rmb9.9 coffee coupon each week; Mixue launched a buy-one-get-one free coupon for coffee in stores that introduced coffee machines (offered scale is small at 10k coupons daily). Luckin also launched a Rmb9.9 coupon for select SKUs covering different categories during Jun 8-21. That said, the magnitude of promotions remains disciplined in our view and we note the offerings only cover select times (am session for Mixue, pm session for Luckin) or/and channel (dine-in), with brands' targeting to drive non-peak hour traffic and dine in sales.

For QSR/restaurants, Jiumaojiu and Haidilao both saw stable pricing trends. Pizza Hut China will introduce another round of buffet during Jun 9-15 (in 1H25 there was one buffet event in Apr, vs. 2 times in Mar and Jun in 1H26), and DPC (Domino Pizza China) also launched a regular buy-one-get-one free campaign.

GS Factor Profile

The Goldman Sachs Factor Profile provides investment context for a stock by comparing key attributes to the market (i.e. our universe of rated stocks) and its sector peers. The four key attributes depicted are: Growth, Financial Returns, Multiple (e.g. valuation) and Integrated (a composite of Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple). Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple are calculated by using normalized ranks for specific metrics for each stock. The normalized ranks for the metrics are then averaged and converted into percentiles for the relevant attribute. The precise calculation of each metric may vary depending on the fiscal year, industry and region, but the standard approach is as follows:

Growth is based on a stock's forward-looking sales growth, EBITDA growth and EPS growth (for financial stocks, only EPS and sales growth), with a higher percentile indicating a higher growth company. Financial Returns is based on a stock's forward-looking ROE, ROCE and CROCI (for financial stocks, only ROE), with a higher percentile indicating a company with higher financial returns. Multiple is based on a stock's forward-looking P/E, P/B, price/dividend (P/D), EV/EBITDA, EV/FCF and EV/Debt Adjusted Cash Flow (DACF) (for financial stocks, only P/E, P/B and P/D), with a higher percentile indicating a stock trading at a higher multiple. The Integrated percentile is calculated as the average of the Growth percentile, Financial Returns percentile and (100% - Multiple percentile).

Financial Returns and Multiple use the Goldman Sachs analyst forecasts at the fiscal year-end at least three quarters in the future. Growth uses inputs for the fiscal year at least seven quarters in the future compared with the year at least three quarters in the future (on a per-share basis for all metrics).

For a more detailed description of how we calculate the GS Factor Profile, please contact your GS representative.

M&A Rank

Across our global coverage, we examine stocks using an M&A framework, considering both qualitative factors and quantitative factors (which may vary across sectors and regions) to incorporate the potential that certain companies could be acquired. We then assign a M&A rank as a means of scoring companies under our rated coverage from 1 to 3, with 1 representing high (30%-50%) probability of the company becoming an acquisition target, 2 representing medium (15%-30%) probability and 3 representing low (0%-15%) probability. For companies ranked 1 or 2, in line with our standard departmental guidelines we incorporate an M&A component into our target price. M&A rank of 3 is considered immaterial and therefore does not factor into our price target, and may or may not be discussed in research.

Quantum

Quantum is Goldman Sachs' proprietary database providing access to detailed financial statement histories, forecasts and ratios. It can be used for in-depth analysis of a single company, or to make comparisons between companies in different sectors and markets.

Ratings, coverage universe and related definitions

Buy (B), Neutral (N), Sell (S) Analysts recommend stocks as Buys or Sells for inclusion on various regional Investment Lists. Being assigned a Buy or Sell on an Investment List is determined by a stock's total return potential relative to its coverage universe. Any stock not assigned as a Buy or a Sell on an Investment List with an active rating (i.e., a stock that is not Rating Suspended, Not Rated, Early-Stage Biotech, Coverage Suspended or Not Covered), is deemed Neutral. Each region manages Regional Conviction Lists, which are selected from Buy rated stocks on the respective region's Investment Lists and represent investment recommendations focused on the size of the total return potential and/or the likelihood of the realization of the return across their respective areas of coverage. The addition or removal of stocks from such Conviction Lists are managed by the Investment Review Committee or other designated committee in each respective region and do not represent a change in the analysts' investment rating for such stocks.

Total return potential represents the upside or downside differential between the current share price and the price target, including all paid or anticipated dividends, expected during the time horizon associated with the price target. Price targets are required for all covered stocks. The total return potential, price target and associated time horizon are stated in each report adding or reiterating an Investment List membership.

Coverage Universe: A list of all stocks in each coverage universe is available by primary analyst, stock and coverage universe at <https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html>.

Not Rated (NR). The investment rating, target price and earnings estimates (where relevant) are removed pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when Goldman Sachs is acting in an advisory capacity in a merger or in a strategic transaction involving this company, when there are legal, regulatory or policy constraints due to Goldman Sachs' involvement in a transaction, and in certain other circumstances. Early-Stage Biotech (ES). An investment rating and a target price are not assigned pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when this company has neither a drug, treatment or medical device that has passed a Phase II clinical trial nor a license to distribute a post-Phase II drug, treatment or medical device. Rating Suspended (RS). Goldman Sachs Research has suspended the investment rating and price target for this stock, because there is not a sufficient fundamental basis for determining an investment rating or target price. The previous investment rating and target price, if any, are no longer in effect for this stock and should not be relied upon. Coverage Suspended (CS). Goldman Sachs has suspended coverage of this company. Not Covered (NC). Goldman Sachs does not cover this company.
