

BIG OILS

Oil price implied in EU Big Oils and sensitivities on a potential Hormuz re-opening

With Brent prices falling on optimism around a potential US-Iran peace deal, we analyse the valuation of EU Big Oils at a wide range of oil prices for 2026/27. We also try to assess the implied long-term oil price in the EU Big Oils valuation, solving for an 8% FCF yield, which implies $60/bl on average over 2026-29E, a meaningful discount to the $78/$77/$79/bl currently embedded in Bloomberg consensus/GSe/forwards Brent over the same period. While valuation remains attractive, in our view, we see little upside to Bloomberg consensus earnings as it is currently pricing 2026E Brent at $91/bl (vs GSe of $87/bl) and 2030E Brent at $70/bl on consensus (vs GSe of $75/bl).

Under a wide range of oil price scenarios in 2026/27 ($90/$80/$70/$60/$50/bl - see Exhibit 2), we see EU Big Oils offering 2026E FCF yields of 13.4%/11.6%/9.9%/8.1%/6.4% and 2026E total cash return to shareholders of 8.0%/7.8%/7.3%/7.0%/5.5%. In this volatile macro backdrop, we highlight for superior upside: Buy-rated BP with strong financial de-gearing and upside potential from trading profits; Buy-rated Repsol with strong benefits from the tight EU jet fuel market and superior oil growth in the Americas, and Buy-rated Galp with the longest oil reserve life per our Top Projects analysis.

An 8% FCF yield implies a long-term Brent price at 60$/bl for the EU majors

We also try to assess the implied long-term oil price in the EU Big Oils valuation, solving for an 8% FCF yield which implies $60/bl on average over 2026-29E (vs $60/bl on LSEG consensus estimates), a meaningful discount to the $78/$77/$79/bl currently embedded in Bloomberg consensus/GSe/forwards Brent over the same period. While valuation remains attractive, we see little upside to consensus earnings as it is currently pricing 2026E Brent at $91/bl on Bloomberg consensus (vs GSe of $87/bl) and 2030E Brent at $70/bl on consensus (vs GSe of $75/bl).

GS Factor Profile

The Goldman Sachs Factor Profile provides investment context for a stock by comparing key attributes to the market (i.e. our universe of rated stocks) and its sector peers. The four key attributes depicted are: Growth, Financial Returns, Multiple (e.g. valuation) and Integrated (a composite of Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple). Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple are calculated by using normalized ranks for specific metrics for each stock. The normalized ranks for the metrics are then averaged and converted into percentiles for the relevant attribute. The precise calculation of each metric may vary depending on the fiscal year, industry and region, but the standard approach is as follows:

Growth is based on a stock's forward-looking sales growth, EBITDA growth and EPS growth (for financial stocks, only EPS and sales growth), with a higher percentile indicating a higher growth company. Financial Returns is based on a stock's forward-looking ROE, ROCE and CROCI (for financial stocks, only ROE), with a higher percentile indicating a company with higher financial returns. Multiple is based on a stock's forward-looking P/E, P/B, price/dividend (P/D), EV/EBITDA, EV/FCF and EV/Debt Adjusted Cash Flow (DACF) (for financial stocks, only P/E, P/B and P/D), with a higher percentile indicating a stock trading at a higher multiple. The Integrated percentile is calculated as the average of the Growth percentile, Financial Returns percentile and (100% - Multiple percentile).

Financial Returns and Multiple use the Goldman Sachs analyst forecasts at the fiscal year-end at least three quarters in the future. Growth uses inputs for the fiscal year at least seven quarters in the future compared with the year at least three quarters in the future (on a per-share basis for all metrics).

For a more detailed description of how we calculate the GS Factor Profile, please contact your GS representative.

M&A Rank

Across our global coverage, we examine stocks using an M&A framework, considering both qualitative factors and quantitative factors (which may vary across sectors and regions) to incorporate the potential that certain companies could be acquired. We then assign a M&A rank as a means of scoring companies under our rated coverage from 1 to 3, with 1 representing high (30%-50%) probability of the company becoming an acquisition target, 2 representing medium (15%-30%) probability and 3 representing low (0%-15%) probability. For companies ranked 1 or 2, in line with our standard departmental guidelines we incorporate an M&A component into our target price. M&A rank of 3 is considered immaterial and therefore does not factor into our price target, and may or may not be discussed in research.

Ratings, coverage universe and related definitions

Buy (B), Neutral (N), Sell (S) Analysts recommend stocks as Buys or Sells for inclusion on various regional Investment Lists. Being assigned a Buy or Sell on an Investment List is determined by a stock's total return potential relative to its coverage universe. Any stock not assigned as a Buy or a Sell on an Investment List with an active rating (i.e., a stock that is not Rating Suspended, Not Rated, Early-Stage Biotech, Coverage Suspended or Not Covered), is deemed Neutral. Each region manages Regional Conviction Lists, which are selected from Buy rated stocks on the respective region's Investment Lists and represent investment recommendations focused on the size of the total return potential and/or the likelihood of the realization of the return across their respective areas of coverage. The addition or removal of stocks from such Conviction Lists are managed by the Investment Review Committee or other designated committee in each respective region and do not represent a change in the analysts' investment rating for such stocks.

Total return potential represents the upside or downside differential between the current share price and the price target, including all paid or anticipated dividends, expected during the time horizon associated with the price target. Price targets are required for all covered stocks. The total return potential, price target and associated time horizon are stated in each report adding or reiterating an Investment List membership.

Coverage Universe: A list of all stocks in each coverage universe is available by primary analyst, stock and coverage universe at <https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html>.

Not Rated (NR). The investment rating, target price and earnings estimates (where relevant) are removed pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when Goldman Sachs is acting in an advisory capacity in a merger or in a strategic transaction involving this company, when there are legal, regulatory or policy constraints due to Goldman Sachs' involvement in a transaction, and in certain other circumstances. Early-Stage Biotech (ES). An investment rating and a target price are not assigned pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when this company has neither a drug, treatment or medical device that has passed a Phase II clinical trial nor a license to distribute a post-Phase II drug, treatment or medical device. Rating Suspended (RS). Goldman Sachs Research has suspended the investment rating and price target for this stock, because there is not a sufficient fundamental basis for determining an investment rating or target price. The previous investment rating and target price, if any, are no longer in effect for this stock and should not be relied upon. Coverage Suspended (CS). Goldman Sachs has suspended coverage of this company. Not Covered (NC). Goldman Sachs does not cover this company.
