Industry Overview

June '26 Semicap imports – down 1% yoy/up 45% mom

We analyze monthly China customs import data relating to semiconductor equipment. The data is relevant for tracking China sales for global semicap players. China accounted for 33.5% of global WFE in 2025, making it one of the most important regions for global semicaps. China's semiconductor equipment imports were $4.7bn in June 2026, above the previous 3mth (Mar'26-May'26) average of $3.9bn and above the previous 12mth (Jun'25-May'26) average of $4.4bn. Import value was down 1% yoy and up 45% mom. On a 3MMA, import value was down 3% yoy and up 1% mom, below the historical 3MMA mom average for the month of +5%. June brings the YTD decline to -9% for 2026, a year in which most semicap suppliers expect China sales to normalize.

Front-end equipment import total compared to semi equipment suppliers' disclosed China equipment sales

On an annual basis, the disclosed China equipment sales of the five largest semi equipment companies (Applied Materials, Lam Research, Tokyo Electron, ASML KLA) total to ~75% of the customs import total for front-end semi equipment over the same period. On a quarterly basis, it ranges between 58% and 85%. Thus, we believe that tracking monthly China import data can be a useful indicator of how semi equipment suppliers' China sales are trending.
