2Q26: Riding the capital markets super cycle

MS 12m Price Target: $241.00 Price: $227.67 Upside: 5.9%

MS reported 2Q26 EPS of $3.46 vs GSe/Visible Alpha Consensus Data at $3.44/$2.94, while core EPS of $3.52 was better than GSe/consensus like estimates of $3.47/$2.95¹. The company once again delivered results well in excess of its targets: 1) a 30.5% core wealth management (GWM) pre-tax margin (vs. a 30% target); 2) a 65.1% core efficiency ratio (vs. a 70% target); and 3) a 27.1% core ROTCE (vs. a 20% target). While management has not revised their targets and have stated that the bar for them to do so is high, given the robust pipelines in capital markets, the heightened levels of client engagement across both retail and institutional businesses, as well as the increasingly fixed cost nature of the business we would expect MS to run above these targets at least in the near term.

Results and management commentary supported a constructive outlook: 1) A robust capital markets backdrop, with the company highlighting a strong investment banking backdrop, with a healthy, globally broadening pipeline. In trading, the company highlighted a solid operating backdrop, noting that there is broadening client activity, and that MS has made investments across the franchise that have driven share gains, such as in equity derivatives. 2) A strong ability to continue to bring in robust flows through the workplace (stock plan) channel, with slightly more than 50% of 2Q26 net new assets in the quarter from workplace, and management highlighting that 70% of the largest 100 unicorns are in their workplace channel. 3) We see structural upside to WM margins, given a portion of the net new assets the company is bringing in from the workplace channel will convert to fee-based assets, which have higher margins than regular fee-based assets, given a lower advisor payout, and thus we model 130bps of 2025-28E core GWM pre-tax margin expansion. 4) While the company sees a variety of organic investment opportunities across both trading businesses and wealth, the company continues to evaluate inorganic growth opportunities, although the bar for acquisitions is high. 5) MS continues to have considerable levels of excess capital (we estimate 250bps of CET1 or $15bn)² which places them in strong position to benefit from elevated levels of client demand for financing, across a range of businesses, in which risk adjusted returns are currently very attractive.

Factoring quarterly results and management commentary, we increase our 2026E/27E EPS estimates by 3%/1%. We increase our target P/E multiple by 0.5x to 17.0x, resulting in our price target increasing to $241 (from $233 previously).

- Strong wealth management trends: MS delivered 8.1%/5.6% annualized net new assets/fee based flows, vs. GSe of 7.8%/6.5%, with net new assets/fee-based flows above the high end/at the lower end of MS' long term guidance of 5-7%. Wealth NII came in 3% above consensus, as wealth deposit balances were 3% above the Street, while avg. wealth deposit costs of 2.54% were 1bp higher QoQ, and 1bps above GSe. The company noted that slightly more than 50% of their 2Q26 NNA was from the workplace channel. It also guided to modest sequential 3Q26 NII growth QoQ. Finally, the company reiterated its 30% pre-tax margin, and did not commit to increasing this, noting that it continues to invest in the business. Altogether, our 2028E GWM revenue increases 1%, and our 2026E/27E/28E GWM PT margins changes by ~+5bps/-5bps/-5bps.
- Capital markets: Trading revenue was 19% above the Street on 36% better Equities, partially offset by 3% lower FICC (both vs. Street). Investment banking came in 11% above the Street, driven by beats across ECM/DCM/Advisory (+22%/8%/3%). MS noted IBanking pipelines remain robust, with healthy, broad-based client dialogues, with large strategics prosecuting their strategic objectives, and the need for solutions and capital. Further, pipelines are broadening globally, and the company remains constructive on both IPOs and sponsor activity building. Overall, stronger capital market results and management commentary lead us to increase our 2026/27E/28E capital markets revenue forecasts by 3%/2%/2%.
- Expenses and margins: Core efficiency of 65.1% was ~295bps better than Street expectations. Specific to wealth, the core PT margin (ex. DCP) of 30.5% was ~35bps above GSe/consensus. Overall, we reduce our 2026E/27E/28E efficiency ratio by ~60bps/20bps/15bps.
- Capital position: MS' binding Standardized CET1 ratio decreased 30bps QoQ to 14.8%, on $3.1bn higher CET1 (despite $1.5bn of buybacks, vs. $1.8bn for consensus), more than offset by $30.3bn higher RWA, with 6% higher trading VaR QoQ. This suggests 250bps of excess capital vs. MS's estimated target of 12.3%.³ The company highlighted that it continues to prioritize organic investment first, with capital demands in fixed income, equities, as well as in wealth. That being said, the company continues to evaluate inorganic opportunities, and they could bolt on something.

² Note: We have incorporated a 100bps management buffer.

³ Note: Unadjusted for B3E and G-SIB reproposal.

New vs old: Reflecting earnings results and management commentary, we increase our 2026E/27E EPS estimates by 3%/1%, and increase our 2027E P/E target multiple by 0.5x to 17.0x. This results in our 12-month price target increasing by 3% to $241 (vs. $233 previously).

Key risks: Downside risks include higher capital requirements, market share losses or more material normalization in trading and investment banking, the impact of lower market levels in WM and IM, and the potential for a slowdown in the robust inflows into wealth management that could impact investor perceptions of the growth potential. Upside risks include higher wealth management margin, stronger equity markets, better capital markets performance.

GS Factor Profile

The Goldman Sachs Factor Profile provides investment context for a stock by comparing key attributes to the market (i.e. our universe of rated stocks) and its sector peers. The four key attributes depicted are: Growth, Financial Returns, Multiple (e.g. valuation) and Integrated (a composite of Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple). Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple are calculated by using normalized ranks for specific metrics for each stock. The normalized ranks for the metrics are then averaged and converted into percentiles for the relevant attribute. The precise calculation of each metric may vary depending on the fiscal year, industry and region, but the standard approach is as follows:

Growth is based on a stock's forward-looking sales growth, EBITDA growth and EPS growth (for financial stocks, only EPS and sales growth), with a higher percentile indicating a higher growth company. Financial Returns is based on a stock's forward-looking ROE, ROCE and CROCI (for financial stocks, only ROE), with a higher percentile indicating a company with higher financial returns. Multiple is based on a stock's forward-looking P/E, P/B, price/dividend (P/D), EV/EBITDA, EV/FCF and EV/Debt Adjusted Cash Flow (DACF) (for financial stocks, only P/E, P/B and P/D), with a higher percentile indicating a stock trading at a higher multiple. The Integrated percentile is calculated as the average of the Growth percentile, Financial Returns percentile and (100% - Multiple percentile).

Financial Returns and Multiple use the Goldman Sachs analyst forecasts at the fiscal year-end at least three quarters in the future. Growth uses inputs for the fiscal year at least seven quarters in the future compared with the year at least three quarters in the future (on a per-share basis for all metrics).

For a more detailed description of how we calculate the GS Factor Profile, please contact your GS representative.

M&A Rank

Across our global coverage, we examine stocks using an M&A framework, considering both qualitative factors and quantitative factors (which may vary across sectors and regions) to incorporate the potential that certain companies could be acquired. We then assign a M&A rank as a means of scoring companies under our rated coverage from 1 to 3, with 1 representing high (30%-50%) probability of the company becoming an acquisition target, 2 representing medium (15%-30%) probability and 3 representing low (0%-15%) probability. For companies ranked 1 or 2, in line with our standard departmental guidelines we incorporate an M&A component into our target price. M&A rank of 3 is considered immaterial and therefore does not factor into our price target, and may or may not be discussed in research.

Ratings, coverage universe and related definitions

Buy (B), Neutral (N), Sell (S) Analysts recommend stocks as Buys or Sells for inclusion on various regional Investment Lists. Being assigned a Buy or Sell on an Investment List is determined by a stock's total return potential relative to its coverage universe. Any stock not assigned as a Buy or a Sell on an Investment List with an active rating (i.e., a stock that is not Rating Suspended, Not Rated, Early-Stage Biotech, Coverage Suspended or Not Covered), is deemed Neutral. Each region manages Regional Conviction Lists, which are selected from Buy rated stocks on the respective region's Investment Lists and represent investment recommendations focused on the size of the total return potential and/or the likelihood of the realization of the return across their respective areas of coverage. The addition or removal of stocks from such Conviction Lists are managed by the Investment Review Committee or other designated committee in each respective region and do not represent a change in the analysts' investment rating for such stocks.

Total return potential represents the upside or downside differential between the current share price and the price target, including all paid or anticipated dividends, expected during the time horizon associated with the price target. Price targets are required for all covered stocks. The total return potential, price target and associated time horizon are stated in each report adding or reiterating an Investment List membership.

Coverage Universe: A list of all stocks in each coverage universe is available by primary analyst, stock and coverage universe at <https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html>.

Not Rated (NR). The investment rating, target price and earnings estimates (where relevant) are removed pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when Goldman Sachs is acting in an advisory capacity in a merger or in a strategic transaction involving this company, when there are legal, regulatory or policy constraints due to Goldman Sachs' involvement in a transaction, and in certain other circumstances. Early-Stage Biotech (ES). An investment rating and a target price are not assigned pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when this company has neither a drug, treatment or medical device that has passed a Phase II clinical trial nor a license to distribute a post-Phase II drug, treatment or medical device. Rating Suspended (RS). Goldman Sachs Research has suspended the investment rating and price target for this stock, because there is not a sufficient fundamental basis for determining an investment rating or target price. The previous investment rating and target price, if any, are no longer in effect for this stock and should not be relied upon. Coverage Suspended (CS). Goldman Sachs has suspended coverage of this company. Not Covered (NC). Goldman Sachs does not cover this company.
