Takeaways from expert call after 6.18 events: Local leaders hold ground, international players maintain momentum

We hosted a China beauty expert call on 23 June to decode the latest industry shifts and market evolution following the recently concluded 6.18 events. Beauty sector GMV grew 11% yoy during 6.18 events (5/13-6/18; platforms including Tmall, JD, PDD, Douyin and Kuaishou; Source: Analysis.cn 易观), outperforming overall GMV growth of 6%, continuing the recovery trajectory (cosmetics retail sales outpacing overall retail sales in the past 11 months; Source: NBS). Key highlights from the discussion include: (1) a divergence of pricing range trends between platforms: Tmall's >Rmb800 ASP segment GMV up >20%, while Douyin's Rmb300-500 segment up c25%; (2) the effective discount level deepened further, given platform coupons, livestreaming coupons and government subsidies, despite the leading brands' largely stable nominal discounts; (3) the leading domestic brands with solid brand equity held their ground, with Proya remaining in the Top 4 on both Tmall and Douyin, and Mao Geping (MGP) and Winona GMV up >20%; and (4) international brands' momentum continued, with international brands reclaiming the No.1 spot on both Tmall and Douyin, and overall ranking improving across the board. MGP is our top pick in the China beauty market, given its superior positioning for the experience-led consumption trend.

- Leading domestic brands held their ground. Despite international brands' recovery and overall domestic brands' weakness, the leading domestic brands with solid brand equity and product offerings still delivered quality growth: (1) MGP continued to lead growth among the leading domestic brands, with overall GMV up c35% and its new IP crossover collections (with Panda Creation) highly favored by consumers. (2) The Proya brand maintained its leading position (No. 3/4 on Tmall/Douyin, likely No.1 on Tmall during 5/21-6/21), with GMV recovering to positive growth (vs. sales -10% in 2025). (3) Botanee's Winona registered solid growth of >20% on both Tmall and Douyin. (4) Chicmax's KANS faced pressure during the promotion events (negative GMV growth on Douyin, No.6 ranking on Douyin vs. No.2 in April and No.1 in January-March), given its mass-market positioning and value-for-money pricing strategy. However, the expert remained confident in Chicmax's fundamentals due to its: (a) comprehensive brand portfolio, such as its rapidly growing brand Newpage (triple-digit GMV growth during the event); (b) R&D strength; (c) capable management team; and (d) aggressive culture. (5) Giant Biogene's Comfy has recovered to positive growth, following questions about its product formula last year. (6) Forest Cabin delivered strong momentum on Douyin, with triple-digit GMV growth.
- International brands' momentum continued. Most international brands have registered >10% GMV growth in the past year, according to the expert, and the momentum was verified during the 6.18 events. In terms of rankings: (1) Skin Ceuticals (owned by L'Oréal, covered by Celine Pannuti, CFA, see latest report) and Estée Lauder (covered by Andrea Teixeira, CFA, see latest report) reclaimed the No.1 position on Tmall and Douyin, respectively; La Mer (also owned by Estée Lauder) has had the best performance on Douyin over the past three years, while SK-II (owned by Procter & Gamble, covered by Andrea Teixeira, CFA, see latest report) also recovered spots in both platforms; and (2) overall international brands' rankings improved across the board, with 9/6 seats among the Top 10 on Tmall/Douyin (vs. 8/5 during Double-11 2025), driven by: (a) expanded KOL livestreaming collaborations, especially mid-tier KOLs; (b) successful launches of more sets with attractive prices; and (c) gifts with purchase with greater emotional value, capturing the gifting demand. The expert expects this momentum to continue in the coming one to two years, supported by the momentum of: (1) midrange to high-end segments on Tmall; and (2) KOL livestreaming and Douyin Mall on Douyin. However, the expert was cautious about the growth prospects of international brands targeting the mass market, such as the L'Oréal brand and Olay (owned by P&G), given the fierce competition from domestic brands.

J.P. Morgan ratings or designations: OW = Overweight, N= Neutral, UW = Underweight, NR = Not Rated

Explanation of Equity Research Ratings, Designations and Analyst(s) Coverage Universe:

J.P. Morgan uses the following rating system: Overweight (over the duration of the price target indicated in this report, we expect this stock will outperform the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst's, or the Research Analyst's team's, coverage universe); Neutral (over the duration of the price target indicated in this report, we expect this stock will perform in line with the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst's, or the Research Analyst's team's, coverage universe); and Underweight (over the duration of the price target indicated in this report, we expect this stock will underperform the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst's, or the Research Analyst's team's, coverage universe. NR is Not Rated. In this case, J.P. Morgan has removed the rating and, if applicable, the price target, for this stock because of either a lack of a sufficient fundamental basis or for legal, regulatory or policy reasons. The previous rating and, if applicable, the price target, no longer should be relied upon. An NR designation is not a recommendation or a rating. Some stocks under coverage have a rating but no price target; in these cases, we expect the stock will outperform/perform in line/underperform the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst's, or the Research Analyst's team's, coverage universe of the relevant duration of the region. In our Asia (ex-Australia and ex-India) and U.K. small- and mid-cap Equity Research, each stock's expected total return is compared to the expected total return of a benchmark country market index, not to those Research Analysts' coverage universe. If it does not appear in the Important Disclosures section of this report, the certifying Research Analyst's coverage universe can be found on J.P. Morgan's Research website, <https://www.jpmorganmarkets.com>.
