2Q26 earnings largely in-line, with much lower revenue contribution from tankers trapped inside the Gulf

Post market close on July 10th, COSCO Shipping Energy released 1H26 prelim results, with 1H26 reported net profit of c.Rmb4.5bn and recurring net profit of c.Rmb4.4bn. This implies 2Q26 net profit of c.Rmb 2.3bn (+7% QoQ) and 2Q26 recurring net profit of c. Rmb2.4bn (+15% QoQ) (see Exhibit 1), which largely in-line with our expectation and modestly ahead of the range mentioned in investors' conversations with us. On the other hand, the QoQ growth of COSCO Shipping Energy's 2Q26 net profit is lower than that (50% QoQ) of another Chinese listed tanker peer China Merchants Energy Shipping Co Ltd (CMES, 601872.SS, Not Covered). We attribute COSCO's underperformance to 7 tankers (incl. 3 VLCCs, 3 LR2s and 1 Panamax) of COSCO's fleet trapped inside the Persian Gulf since Strait of Hormuz closed (from Feb 28th, 2026), which were not able to charge demurrage fees (see Mar-26 report) to compensate the idleness from the customers and thus could only contribute a much lower revenue during 2Q26, while CMES had no tankers trapped in the Gulf.

Going forward, given all COSCO's tankers trapped in the Gulf have sailed out after Strait of Hormuz temporarily reopened in June, we expect COSCO to catch up with peers from 3Q26. Beyond earnings, we believe the market focus would be still on the freight rate, which we forecast to be US$150k/ day for the full-year 2026 average in our base case (vs. c90k implied from current share price), and would be driven by a formal reopening of Hormuz and restocking demand afterwards. We maintain our price target unchanged of HK$30/Rmb33 per share for H/A-share.

For crude tankers, based on the VLCC TCE of US Gulf-China and West Africa-China, we estimate the average industry VLCC TCE during 2Q26 was at c.US$125k/day (+31% QoQ) if considering 1-month lag for revenue recognition vs. industry quotes, which is largely in-line with peer's mgmt comment (see Jul-26 report). product tankers, we estimate industry BCTI TCE was at c.US$57k/day (+113% QoQ) during 2Q26. We believe COSCO Energy's VLCCs outside the Gulf reached the industry-level TCE in 2Q26, while product tankers underperformed the industry given China suspended the product oil export from Mar 11th, 2026, and COSCO has a higher exposure to China routes.

Investment Thesis - COSCO Shipping Energy

COSCO Shipping Energy is a Chinese energy materials (e.g., oil, natural gas) shipping company with the largest oil tanker fleet (among listed companies) in the world. COSCO Energy has 62 crude tankers (incl. 45 VLCCs) and 31 product tankers in its owned international trade fleet, and another 54 tankers in its domestic trade fleet (as of end-24). COSCO Energy's crude oil has usually accounted for over 50% of its profit historically. The company has a 5% share of the global seaborne crude oil tanker market

(in terms of turnover) and a 1% share of the product oil tanker market (as of Aug-23). We are positive on COSCO Energy given 1) Supply: Limited capacity additions due to still low orderbook, ageing fleet and slower vessel speed required to be phased out by tightened environmental protection measures; 2) Demand: Structurally lifted demand given longer shipping distance, due to rerouting post sanctions on Russian crude/product oil, global refinery dislocation, and wider Dubai/WTI spread could also stimulate Asian imports from the US gulf; and 3) COSCO Energy's exposure: Largest listed oil tanker fleet, with diversified exposure to crude and product oil shipping, and more exposed to VLCCs, which carry long-haul crude oil. We believe the upcycle could continue for longer with potential ROE upside, warranting a higher valuation. We are Buy rated on COSCO Shipping Energy (A/H).

Price Target Risks and Methodology - COSCO Shipping Energy

We are Buy rated on COSCO Shipping Energy A/H (600026.SS/1138.HK) with 12-month target prices of Rmb33.0/HK$30.0. We derive our TPs using a P/B methodology, using an estimated sustainable ROE to arrive at a theoretical target FY26E P/B of 3.1x for the A-shares. We then apply an H/A-share discount (20%) to derive our H-share target P/B of 2.5x.

Key downside risks: (1) OPEC output reduction; (2) More-than-expected capacity delivery; and (3) Softer oil consumption demand due to the weaker macro environment.

GS Factor Profile

The Goldman Sachs Factor Profile provides investment context for a stock by comparing key attributes to the market (i.e. our universe of rated stocks) and its sector peers. The four key attributes depicted are: Growth, Financial Returns, Multiple (e.g. valuation) and Integrated (a composite of Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple). Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple are calculated by using normalized ranks for specific metrics for each stock. The normalized ranks for the metrics are then averaged and converted into percentiles for the relevant attribute. The precise calculation of each metric may vary depending on the fiscal year, industry and region, but the standard approach is as follows:

Growth is based on a stock's forward-looking sales growth, EBITDA growth and EPS growth (for financial stocks, only EPS and sales growth), with a higher percentile indicating a higher growth company. Financial Returns is based on a stock's forward-looking ROE, ROCE and CROCI (for financial stocks, only ROE), with a higher percentile indicating a company with higher financial returns. Multiple is based on a stock's forward-looking P/E, P/B, price/dividend (P/D), EV/EBITDA, EV/FCF and EV/Debt Adjusted Cash Flow (DACF) (for financial stocks, only P/E, P/B and P/D), with a higher percentile indicating a stock trading at a higher multiple. The Integrated percentile is calculated as the average of the Growth percentile, Financial Returns percentile and (100% - Multiple percentile).

Financial Returns and Multiple use the Goldman Sachs analyst forecasts at the fiscal year-end at least three quarters in the future. Growth uses inputs for the fiscal year at least seven quarters in the future compared with the year at least three quarters in the future (on a per-share basis for all metrics).

M&A Rank

Across our global coverage, we examine stocks using an M&A framework, considering both qualitative factors and quantitative factors (which may vary across sectors and regions) to incorporate the potential that certain companies could be acquired. We then assign a M&A rank as a means of scoring companies under our rated coverage from 1 to 3, with 1 representing high (30%-50%) probability of the company becoming an acquisition target, 2 representing medium (15%-30%) probability and 3 representing low (0%-15%) probability. For companies ranked 1 or 2, in line with our standard departmental guidelines we incorporate an M&A component into our target price. M&A rank of 3 is considered immaterial and therefore does not factor into our price target, and may or may not be discussed in research.

Ratings, coverage universe and related definitions

Buy (B), Neutral (N), Sell (S) Analysts recommend stocks as Buys or Sells for inclusion on various regional Investment Lists. Being assigned a Buy or Sell on an Investment List is determined by a stock's total return potential relative to its coverage universe. Any stock not assigned as a Buy or a Sell on an Investment List with an active rating (i.e., a stock that is not Rating Suspended, Not Rated, Early-Stage Biotech, Coverage Suspended or Not Covered), is deemed Neutral. Each region manages Regional Conviction Lists, which are selected from Buy rated stocks on the respective region's Investment Lists and represent investment recommendations focused on the size of the total return potential and/or the likelihood of the realization of the return across their respective areas of coverage. The addition or removal of stocks from such Conviction Lists are managed by the Investment Review Committee or other designated committee in each respective region and do not represent a change in the analysts' investment rating for such stocks.

Total return potential represents the upside or downside differential between the current share price and the price target, including all paid or anticipated dividends, expected during the time horizon associated with the price target. Price targets are required for all covered stocks. The total return potential, price target and associated time horizon are stated in each report adding or reiterating an Investment List membership.

Coverage Universe: A list of all stocks in each coverage universe is available by primary analyst, stock and coverage universe at <https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html>.

Not Rated (NR). The investment rating, target price and earnings estimates (where relevant) are removed pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when Goldman Sachs is acting in an advisory capacity in a merger or in a strategic transaction involving this company, when there are legal, regulatory or policy constraints due to Goldman Sachs' involvement in a transaction, and in certain other circumstances. Early-Stage Biotech (ES). An investment rating and a target price are not assigned pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when this company has neither a drug, treatment or medical device that has passed a Phase II clinical trial nor a license to distribute a post-Phase II drug, treatment or medical device. Rating Suspended (RS). Goldman Sachs Research has suspended the investment rating and price target for this stock, because there is not a sufficient fundamental basis for determining an investment rating or target price. The previous investment rating and target price, if any, are no longer in effect for this stock and should not be relied upon. Coverage Suspended (CS). Goldman Sachs has suspended coverage of this company. Not Covered (NC). Goldman Sachs does not cover this company.
