

KOREA WEEKLY KICKSTART

KOSPI surged by 11%, breaking above the KOSPI 9,000 as tech continues to lead the rally amid US-Iran deal and hawkish FOMC

- KOSPI surged by 11%, breaking above the KOSPI 9,000 as tech continues to lead the rally amid US-Iran deal and hawkish June FOMC. The Insurance, Tech and Retail sectors outperformed this week, while Construction, Telecom and Leisure sectors underperformed the most (Exhibit 6).
- Foreign investors turned to buy the KOSPI market, driven by inflows for KOSPI Tech and Auto (Exhibit 33).
- KOSPI 12m-forward EPS was revised up by +1.5%. The Tech sector saw the strongest upward earnings revisions, while the Chemicals sector was revised down the most this week (Exhibit 20).
- The KRW weakened 0.8% vs. USD this week. It also weakened by 0.1% vs. JPY but strengthened 0.2% vs. EUR.
- The latest Korea Equity Risk Barometer (GSSRKERB Index) is at 0.2, rebounding back into a risk-neutral territory.

Charts of the Week: Preliminary Mutual Fund Positioning (May 2026), MSCI Market Accessibility Review

■ Preliminary Mutual Fund Positioning (May 2026) :

Based on preliminary EPFR data (~46% of total AUM reported), Asian and EM funds have trimmed exposure in Korea (vs. benchmark) as they are UW with the market. By sector, among EM & Asian focused funds, Insurance and Tech H/W are the most OW while Internet and Health Care are the most UW for Korea. Over the past 3 months, EM & Asian funds have raised their exposure to Industrials the most while trimmed down Tech H/W exposure by sector.

- MSCI Market Accessibility Review : MSCI upgraded Availability of Investment Instruments from “-” to “+”, reflecting Korean index derivatives listed on international exchanges. Five “-” criteria remain: FX Liberalization (no fully deliverable offshore KRW), Investor Registration (IRC/LEI coexistence constraining omnibus adoption), Information Flow (English disclosure effectiveness still pending full 2027 rollout), Clearing & Settlement (settlement remains per investor ID; funding amount calculation remains unclear), and Transferability. MSCI acknowledged ongoing reform progress, including Phase 2 English disclosure, the planned 24-hour FX market (July 2026), and the offshore KRW pilot (2H26), but noted these have yet to deliver a “meaningful improvement in the experience of

MSCI Assessments		2026 Result	MSCI Comments
Openness to foreign ownership
Investor qualification requirement		++	++
Foreign ownership limit (FOL) level		++	++
Foreign room level		+	+
Equal rights to foreign investors		+	+
Ease of capital inflows/outflows
Capital flows restriction level		++	++
Foreign exchange market liberalization level		-	- A fully deliverable offshore currency market is still not available, and constraints persist on the onshore FX market. Building on the MOEF's FX reform announced in 2023 and subsequent measures implemented through 2024–2025, the authorities have outlined further initiatives to align the FX framework with global practices, including plans for 24-hour onshore trading in July 2026 and offshore KRW settlement targeted for 2027.
Efficiency of the operational framework
Market entry
Investor registration & account set up		-	- Registration is mandatory. Since December 2023, foreign investors must obtain a Legal Entity Identifier (LEI), which superseded the previous Investor Registration Certificate (IRC) system. The transition between both frameworks remains ongoing, and their coexistence continues to create operational friction, with implications for the use of omnibus account structures.
Market organization
Market regulations		++	++
Information flow		-	- Detailed stock market information is not always disclosed in English. A phased mandatory English disclosure framework introduced in 2023 has progressively improved disclosure practices. The first phase has concluded. The second phase expands coverage in 2026, with a further phase expected in 2027. Additionally, adoption of the revised dividend distribution procedure remains partial but is progressing.
Market Infrastructure
Clearing and Settlement		-	- Despite recent regulatory measures, settlement is still predominantly conducted on a per-investor-ID basis. Overdraft and omnibus mechanisms are permitted but practical adoption remains limited. The Korea Securities Depository (KSD) recently advanced its settlement start time and reduced the settlement progress payment amounts, partially easing broker pre-settlement funding requirements. However, there is a lack of clarity around the calculation of funding amounts, creating inefficiency in the settlement process.
Custody		++	++
Registry/Depository		++	++
Trading		++	++
Transferability		-	- Following regulatory reforms of 2023, in-kind transfers and off-exchange transactions are allowed with restrictions. However, they are not yet common practice.
Stock lending		++	++
Short selling		+	+
Availability of Investment instrument		+	+
Stability of institutional framework		+	+

++: no issues; +: no major issues, improvements possible; -: improvements needed / extent to be assessed

Regulatory disclosures

Disclosures required by United States laws and regulations

See company-specific regulatory disclosures above for any of the following disclosures required as to companies referred to in this report: manager or co-manager in a pending transaction; 1% or other ownership; compensation for certain services; types of client relationships; managed/co-managed public offerings in prior periods; directorships; for equity securities, market making and/or specialist role. Goldman Sachs trades or may trade as a principal in debt securities (or in related derivatives) of issuers discussed in this report.

The following are additional required disclosures: Ownership and material conflicts of interest: Goldman Sachs policy prohibits its analysts, professionals reporting to analysts and members of their households from owning securities of any company in the analyst's area of coverage. Analyst compensation: Analysts are paid in part based on the profitability of Goldman Sachs, which includes investment banking revenues. Analyst as officer or director: Goldman Sachs policy generally prohibits its analysts, persons reporting to analysts or members of their households from serving as an officer, director or advisor of any company in the analyst's area of coverage. Non-U.S. Analysts: Non-U.S. analysts may not be associated persons of Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC and therefore may not be subject to FINRA Rule 2241 or FINRA Rule 2242 restrictions on communications with a subject company, public appearances and trading in securities covered by the analysts.

Additional disclosures required under the laws and regulations of jurisdictions other than the United States

The following disclosures are those required by the jurisdiction indicated, except to the extent already made above pursuant to United States laws and regulations. Australia: Goldman Sachs Australia Pty Ltd and its affiliates are not authorised deposit-taking institutions (as that term is defined in the Banking Act 1959 (Cth)) in Australia and do not provide banking services, nor carry on a banking business, in Australia. This research, and any access to it, is intended only for "wholesale clients" within the meaning of the Australian Corporations Act, unless otherwise agreed by Goldman Sachs. In producing research reports, members of Global Investment Research of Goldman Sachs Australia may attend site visits and other meetings hosted by the companies and other entities which are the subject of its research reports. In some instances the costs of such site visits or meetings may be met in part or in whole by the issuers concerned if Goldman Sachs Australia considers it is appropriate and reasonable in the specific circumstances relating to the site visit or meeting. To the extent that the contents of this document contains any financial product advice, it is general advice only and has been prepared by Goldman Sachs without taking into account a client's objectives, financial situation or needs. A client should, before acting on any such advice, consider the appropriateness of the advice having regard to the client's own objectives, financial situation and needs. General disclosures

This research is for our clients only. Other than disclosures relating to Goldman Sachs, this research is based on current public information that we consider reliable, but we do not represent it is accurate or complete, and it should not be relied on as such. The information, opinions, estimates and forecasts contained herein are as of the date hereof and are subject to change without prior notification. We seek to update our research as appropriate, but various regulations may prevent us from doing so. Other than certain industry reports published on a periodic basis, the large majority of reports are published at irregular intervals as appropriate in the analyst’s judgment.

Goldman Sachs conducts a global full-service, integrated investment banking, investment management, and brokerage business. We have investment banking and other business relationships with a substantial percentage of the companies covered by Global Investment Research. Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC, the United States broker dealer, is a member of SIPC (<https://www.sipc.org>).

Our salespeople, traders, and other professionals may provide oral or written market commentary or trading strategies to our clients and principal trading desks that reflect opinions that are contrary to the opinions expressed in this research. Our asset management area, principal trading desks and investing businesses may make investment decisions that are inconsistent with the recommendations or views expressed in this research.

We and our affiliates, officers, directors, and employees will from time to time have long or short positions in, act as principal in, and buy or sell, the securities or derivatives, if any, referred to in this research, unless otherwise prohibited by regulation or Goldman Sachs policy.

The views attributed to third party presenters at Goldman Sachs arranged conferences, including individuals from other parts of Goldman Sachs, do not necessarily reflect those of Global Investment Research and are not an official view of Goldman Sachs.

Any third party referenced herein, including any salespeople, traders and other professionals or members of their household, may have positions in the products mentioned that are inconsistent with the views expressed by analysts named in this report.

This research is focused on investment themes across markets, industries and sectors. It does not attempt to distinguish between the prospects or performance of, or provide analysis of, individual companies within any industry or sector we describe.

Any trading recommendation in this research relating to an equity or credit security or securities within an industry or sector is reflective of the investment theme being discussed and is not a recommendation of any such security in isolation.

This research is not an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any security in any jurisdiction where such an offer or solicitation would be illegal. It does not constitute a personal recommendation or take into account the particular investment objectives, financial situations, or needs of individual clients. Clients should consider whether any advice or recommendation in this research is suitable for their particular circumstances and, if appropriate, seek professional advice, including tax advice. The price and value of investments referred to in this research and the income from them may fluctuate. Past performance is not a guide to future performance, future returns are not guaranteed, and a loss of original capital may occur. Fluctuations in exchange rates could have adverse effects on the value or price of, or income derived from, certain investments.

Certain transactions, including those involving futures, options, and other derivatives, give rise to substantial risk and are not suitable for all investors. Investors should review current options and futures disclosure documents which are available from Goldman Sachs sales representatives or at <https://www.theocc.com/about/publications/character-risks.jsp> and https://www.goldmansachs.com/disclosures/cftc_fcm_disclosures. Transaction costs may be significant in option strategies calling for multiple purchase and sales of options such as spreads. Supporting documentation will be supplied upon request.

Differing Levels of Service provided by Global Investment Research: The level and types of services provided to you by Goldman Sachs Global Investment Research may vary as compared to that provided to internal and other external clients of GS, depending on various factors including your individual preferences as to the frequency and manner of receiving communication, your risk profile and investment focus and perspective (e.g., marketwide, sector specific, long term, short term), the size and scope of your overall client relationship with GS, and legal and regulatory constraints. As an example, certain clients may request to receive notifications when research on specific securities is published, and certain clients may request that specific data underlying analysts' fundamental analysis available on our internal client websites be delivered to them electronically through data feeds or otherwise. No change to an analyst's fundamental research views (e.g., ratings, price targets, or material changes to earnings estimates for equity securities), will be communicated to any client prior to inclusion of such information in a research report broadly disseminated through electronic publication to our internal client websites or through other means, as necessary, to all clients who are entitled to receive such reports.

All research reports are disseminated and available to all clients simultaneously through electronic publication to our internal client websites. Not all research content is redistributed to our clients or available to third-party aggregators, nor is Goldman Sachs responsible for the redistribution of our research by third party aggregators. For research, models or other data related to one or more securities, markets or asset classes (including related services) that may be available to you, please contact your GS representative or go to <https://research.gs.com>.

Disclosure information is also available at <https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html> or from Research Compliance, 200 West Street, New York, NY 10282.
