

EM USD 10s30s Spread Curve Report

Muted Flattening Leaves EM Spread Curve Shape Intact

- After a broad EM steepening move last month, curves have flattened slightly. The EM aggregate 10s30s curve bull flattened by 1bp to 68bp over the past month, driven by EMIG flattening by 1bp m/m to 61bp. The EMBIG curve followed the overall muted bull flattening move, tightening by 1bp to 71bp, with EMBIG Asia driving the move by flattening 7bp m/m to 37bp. Over the past month, the UST 10s30s curve bear flattened by 6bp to 54bp, while the US HG 10s30s curve also flattened by 2bp to 16bp.
- CEMBI also flattened marginally by -1bp m/m to 56bp, led by Latin America (-1bp m/m to 52bp). The magnitude of the bull flattening was more substantial in the individual pairs within the region, but the average move was mitigated by the exit of the flattest issuer. CEMBI CEEMEA (-2bp m/m to 60bp) flattened as well, whereas CEMBI Asia (+3bp m/m to 61bp) steepened. Overall, the curves have been relatively stable on average despite the meaningful swings in UST yields.
- The largest steepening over the month was led by DOMREP (11bp), CDEL (9bp), BABA (7bp), KSA (7bp), and PARGUY (7bp). Meanwhile, the largest flattening over the month was led by INDON (-26bp), GRUMAB (-13bp), EGYPT (-12bp), SQM (-12bp), and AITOCU (-11bp).
- Steepest curves are led by EGYPT (141bp), PEMEX (121bp), ELSALV (116bp), SOAF (104bp), and KSA (90bp). Meanwhile, the flattest curves are led by INDON (9bp), SQM (22bp), GRUMAB (39bp), EXIMBK (39bp) and ECOPET (41bp).
- Composition changes: At the May month-end rebalance, EGYPT and INDON now reference a new 10-year or 30-year pair in the EMBI 10s30s index. In the CEMBI 10s30s index, BIMBOA exits.

APPENDIX: Guide to EM USD 10s30s Spread Curve Report

Pair Selection

As eligible bonds are limited to those included in our flagship EM indices, it ensures the selected pairs are replicable and tradable. The index rules are also designed in such a way that bonds with similar structures are selected to facilitate apples-to-apples comparisons. To complement rule-based selection, we also review the list of eligible bond pairs on a monthly basis to ensure that the most liquid, on-the-run bonds are selected to maintain features that are intuitive, liquid, and replicable. The calculation methodology includes two steps: Pair Selection and Index Aggregation. The table below includes a summary of the rules used to select eligible bonds.

Pair Selection
Issuer	Issuers within the EMBI Global and CEMBI Broad universe
Maturity Requirement*	7-11 years for 10-year bond and 25-40 years for 30-year bond
Liquidity	Most recently issued bonds will be selected; if two bonds have the same issue date, the one with larger face amount will be chosen
Instrument Type	Excludes perpetual bonds
Seniority	Excludes subordinated instruments
Spread	One-month moving average spread below 1,000bps
Index Aggregation
Index weighted by 10-year bond face amount, rebalanced on monthly basis

Important Disclosures

Company-Specific Disclosures: Important disclosures, including price charts and credit opinion history tables (if applicable), are available for compendium reports and all J.P. Morgan-covered companies, and certain non-covered companies, by visiting <https://www.jpmm.com/research/disclosures>, calling 1-800-477-0406, or e-mailing research.disclosure.inquiries@jpmorgan.com with your request.

Company-Specific Disclosures: J.P. Morgan does and seeks to do business with companies covered in its research reports. As a result, investors should be aware that the firm may have a conflict of interest that could affect the objectivity of this report. Investors should consider this report as only a single factor in making their investment decision. Important disclosures, including price charts and credit opinion history tables (if applicable), are available for compendium reports and all J.P. Morgan-covered companies, and certain non-covered companies, by visiting <https://www.jpmm.com/research/disclosures>, calling 1-800-477-0406, or e-mailing research.disclosure.inquiries@jpmorgan.com with your request.

History of Investment Recommendations:

A history of J.P. Morgan investment recommendations disseminated during the preceding 12 months can be accessed on the Research & Commentary page of <http://www.jpmorganmarkets.com> where you can also search by analyst name, sector or financial instrument.

Explanation of Emerging Markets Sovereign Research Ratings System and Valuation & Methodology:

Ratings System: J.P. Morgan uses the following issuer portfolio weightings for Emerging Markets Sovereign Research: Overweight (over the next three months, the recommended risk position is expected to outperform the relevant index, sector, or benchmark credit returns); Marketweight (over the next three months, the recommended risk position is expected to perform in line with the relevant index, sector, or benchmark credit returns); and Underweight (over the next three months, the recommended risk position is expected to underperform the relevant index, sector, or benchmark credit returns). NR is Not Rated. In this case, J.P. Morgan has removed the rating for this security because of either legal, regulatory or policy reasons or because of lack of a sufficient fundamental basis. The previous rating no longer should be relied upon. An NR designation is not a recommendation or a rating. NC is Not Covered. An NC designation is not a rating or a recommendation. Recommendations will be at the issuer level, and an issuer recommendation applies to all of the index-eligible bonds at the same level for the issuer. When we change the issuer-level rating, we are changing the rating for all of the issues covered, unless otherwise specified. Ratings for quasi-sovereign issuers in the EMBIG may differ from the ratings provided in EM corporate coverage.

Valuation & Methodology: For J.P. Morgan's Emerging Markets Sovereign Research, we assign a rating to each sovereign issuer (Overweight, Marketweight or Underweight) based on our view of whether the combination of the issuer's fundamentals, market technicals, and the relative value of its securities will cause it to outperform, perform in line with, or underperform the credit returns of the EMBIGD index over the next three months. Our view of an issuer's fundamentals includes our opinion of whether the issuer is becoming more or less able to service its debt obligations when they become due and payable, as well as whether its willingness to service debt obligations is increasing or decreasing.

J.P. Morgan Emerging Markets Sovereign Research Ratings Distribution, as of April 4, 2026

	Overweight (buy)	Marketweight (hold)	Underweight (sell)
Emerging Markets Sovereign Research Universe*	6%	84%	10%
IB clients	100%	86%	100%

Percentage of subject issuers within each of the "Overweight," "Marketweight" and "Underweight" categories for which J.P. Morgan has provided investment banking services within the previous 12 months.

For purposes of FINRA ratings distribution rules only, our Overweight rating falls into a buy rating category; our Marketweight rating falls into a hold rating category; and our Underweight rating falls into a sell rating category. The Emerging Markets Sovereign Research Rating Distribution is at the issuer level. Issuers with an NR or an NC designation are not included in the table above. This information is current as of the end of the most recent calendar quarter.

Explanation of Credit Research Valuation Methodology, Ratings and Risk to Ratings:

J.P. Morgan uses a bond-level rating system that incorporates valuations (relative value) and our fundamental view on the security. Our fundamental credit view of an issuer is based on the company's underlying credit trends, overall creditworthiness and our opinion on whether the issuer will be able to service its debt obligations when they become due and payable. We analyze, among other things, the company's cash flow capacity and trends and standard credit ratios, such as gross and net leverage, interest coverage and liquidity ratios. We also analyze profitability, capitalization and asset quality, among other variables, when assessing financials. Analysts also rate the issuer, based on the rating of the benchmark or representative security. Unless we specify a different recommendation for the company's individual securities, an issuer recommendation applies to all of the bonds at the same level of the issuer's capital structure. We may also rate certain loans and preferred securities, as applicable. This report also sets out within it the material underlying assumptions used. We use the following ratings for bonds (issues), issuers, loans, and preferred securities: Overweight (over the next three months, the recommended risk position is expected to outperform the relevant index, sector, or benchmark); Neutral (over the next three months, the recommended risk position is expected to perform in line with the relevant index, sector, or benchmark); and Underweight (over the next three months, the recommended risk position is expected to underperform the relevant index, sector, or benchmark). For CDS, we use the following rating system: Long Risk (over the next three months, the credit return on the recommended position is expected to exceed the relevant index, sector or benchmark); Neutral (over the next three months, the credit return on the recommended position is expected to match the relevant index, sector or benchmark); and Short Risk (over the next three months, the credit return on the recommended position is expected to underperform the relevant index, sector or benchmark).

ESG Data Integrity: Where an index administered by the Index Administrator pursues environmental, social or governance (ESG) objectives, the Index Administrator is, wholly or in part, reliant on public sources of information and other third party sources. Further, the ability of the Index Administrator to verify such objectives may be limited by the integrity, quality, and detail of the data available in respect of the underlying constituents at the relevant point in time and the status and evolution of global laws, guidelines, regulations, and market practice in relation to the preparation, tracking and provision of such data. Therefore, such disclosures are made on a commercially reasonable efforts basis and are subject to change. In particular, new laws, guidelines or regulations may be introduced in relation to the methodology used to provide corporate ESG ratings which could impact the Index Administrator's ESG index score and the relevant screenings and exclusions and cause them to change. ESG data may be inconsistent across providers. The Index Administrator's ESG index score, relevant screenings and exclusions and related disclosures are also subject to change as a result of periodic reviews conducted by the Index Administrator in relation to the sources of ESG data. In calculating the index in line with the methodology articulated herein, the Index Administrator relies on the data provided by the ESG data providers. The Index Administrator does not independently source its own ESG data or exercise any discretion with respect to the substitution of third party ESG data. The integrity of the ESG data sourced from third parties is limited by the ability of those providers to source accurate data on the ESG performance of certain corporate structures, such as parent versus subsidiary, including SPVs, holding company versus operating company and the activities of any affiliated entities and derived structures. Further, ESG data pertaining to sovereign issuers is limited to the sourcing of ESG performance data at the level of the relevant country. The current data integrity landscape means it is not possible to screen all issuers for exclusion (e.g. issuers other than corporate and quasi-sovereign issuers). Issuers in respect of whom ESG data is limited may still be included in the index.
