

JAPAN WEEKLY KICKSTART

Critical thinking; 4Q 3/26 results summary (as of May 14)

Summary of the week

TOPIX: 3,863.97 (0.9%) / NK225: 61,409.29 (-2.1%)

- Top sectors: Insurance, Trading/Wholesale
- Bottom sectors: Non-Ferrous Metals, Machinery

In this week's Japan Weekly Kickstart we focus on the recent performance of our GS Japan Critical Resources (GSJPCRT) basket. This basket was initially highlighted last March (LINK), and was designed to give clients exposure to areas where we expected to see Economic Security concerns drive increased demand. It includes exposure to sectors where companies are involved in the extraction, transportation and/or processing of critical resources (such as Trading Companies, Energy Resources companies and Shippers), and has been a very strong performer so far this year (Exhibit 1). The basket is currently +43% ytd (vs. TOPIX +12%), and should continue to see interest while the geopolitical situation in the Middle East remains relatively volatile.

- FY3/26 earnings results (as of May 14): 84% of Feb/Mar fiscal year-end TOPIX companies (by market-cap) have reported 4Q earnings, and the number of positive surprises (54%) exceeded negative surprises (35%). At an aggregate level, TOPIX 4Q/FY net profit growth is +16/+2pp versus consensus (Exhibit 4), but only in-line when excluding Softbank Group. Guidance now seems to be slightly more conservative than usual (Exhibit 6).
- Price reaction: As we highlighted in Why does geopolitical risk no longer seem to matter?, the performance concentration of the Japanese equities market remained high entering the earnings results season. As can be seen in Exhibit 8 below, 1M momentum stocks reacted strongly to negative surprises while positive surprises were not rewarded. We also had high dispersion in price reactions this season (Exhibit 9).
- Foreigners were net buyers, Domestic Institutions and Individuals were net sellers: According to the latest data from the TSE, for the week 7-8 May, Foreigners net bought ¥1.2tn of TSE Prime cash equities, while Domestic Institutions and Individuals net sold -¥457bn and -¥468bn respectively.

Appendix One - Methodology

Our original analysis which has now been integrated into the Japan Weekly Kickstart format focuses on sector and thematic performance of the more liquid portion of the Japanese equities market. This is defined as any Japanese stocks that trade over US$20mn advt. We believe that a significant number of our clients have liquidity constraints which require them to limit their stand-alone positions to this particular universe. By our calculations, there are 271 stocks in Japan that trade above this liquidity threshold as of Dec 17 2025.

We have sub-divided this universe into 45 equal weighted indices that focus on either MSCI-defined sectors and sub-sectors, or areas of thematic focus that stretch across multiple sectors (such as High Dividend Yield or Gaming). For these thematic indices, we have relied either on quantitative measures and/or GS Equity analyst input on component selection. We hope to expand the number of indices over time and would welcome client feedback on any areas of thematic interest we should focus on.

We track the performance of the equal-weighted sector, sub-sector and thematic indices over time and also measure the spread between the best-performing and the worst-performing stocks within the index. For example, Exhibit 37 illustrates both the volatility of the mean weekly performance in the liquid SPE index (the dark blue line), and the weekly Best-Worst spreads within the index (the light blue cloud).

Exhibit 37: SPE index 52 week equal-weighted cumulative weekly performance and best-worst spreads

Source: FactSet, Data compiled by Goldman Sachs Global Investment Research

The criteria we have used in our analysis of the liquid Japanese equities market can be summarized as follows:

- Total universe consists of Japanese stocks with a 6-month adv of over US$20mn (271 stocks as of Dec 17 2025).
- The universe will be refreshed every year.
- Indices are all equal-weighted.
- Index component selection is based on MSCI sector and sub-sector definitions, quantitative factors and/or GS single-stock Equity Analyst guidance.
- The same stock can appear in multiple indices.
- The Best-Worst spread is based on the difference between the best performing and worst performing component within each index.
- The first 12 months of trading of any new listing are not included in the index performance.

We anticipate that the number of indices will be adjusted over time and would welcome any client feedback on other areas within the liquid Japan equities universe we should be focused on.
