NFLX Trending & 2Q Preview, 7/10/26: Focus on Engagement, Content Quality, & Revenue Growth; Remain Overweight

Investor sentiment remains cautious heading into Netflix's 2Q earnings on Thursday, 7/16, as NFLX shares have traded down -30% since 1Q earnings vs. SPX +6%. Primary concerns include engagement growth, subscriber trends following recent price increases, content quality & investment, & the potential for further pursuit of M&A. Engagement time increased ~2% in 1Q26, similar to the growth in 2H25, & slightly ahead of the 1% growth in 1H25. NFLX will likely release its semi-annual engagement report concurrent with 2Q earnings. However, we do not believe engagement metrics provide a complete view of business trends and member satisfaction as NFLX's primary internal quality engagement metric hit an all-time high in 1Q, and we continue to view engagement growth as less correlated with revenue growth on a platform of 325M+ subs, & with additional lift from pricing & advertising. According to a WSJ article out after the close Thursday, NFLX may be considering adding live channels to its platform, similar to what it did with TF 1 in France, and bundling other streaming services, much like Amazon Prime Video does today. We'd consider these more extreme methods of increasing engagement, which likely won't be taken well by the Street. Still, we understand the concerns as Figure 2 suggests global "Cancel Netflix" search queries spiked in March'26 following US price increases, though they have since normalized. NFLX indicated at 1Q earnings that churn was in-line with expectations. Shifting to earnings, we believe investors expect NFLX to maintain 2026 Revenue guidance of $50.7B-$51.7B & operating margin guidance of 31.5%, while continuing healthy share repurchases. NFLX's 2026 revenue growth guide of +12%-14% (+11%-13% FXN) is supported by membership growth, pricing, & advertising. NFLX remains bullish on organic growth upside, w/NFLX still <45% penetrated of the ~800M+ global CTV HHs ex-China & Russia, and the company is on a path toward 1B viewers over time as it becomes global TV. We estimate US price increases will drive ~$1.7B+ of incremental annualized revenue off the 2025 base & contribute ~250bps of growth in 2026, w/further upside from int'l price increases. Ad revenue will roughly double again in 2026 to ~$3B. We project 2026 Revenue growth of +13% FXN Y/Y, including Subscribers +8% & FXN ARM +4%, though we recognize that FX rates have become less favorable, w/incremental headwind to reported revenue of 100bps+ in 3Q & 50bps+ for full year 2026. An offset could come from the 49ers vs. Rams NFL game on 9/10 from Melbourne, Australia, which should help both subs and ad revenue.

NFLX's 2026 operating margin guide of 31.5% reflects +150bps Y/Y expansion when adjusting for Brazil tax catch-up in 2025 & ~$275M of deal-related expenses in 2026. The shape of 2026 operating income growth is a bit lumpy w/content timing leading to higher amortization in 1H & overall Y/Y GAAP expense growth of +16%. But 2H26 expense growth should decelerate materially—we project to +7% Y/Y—and price increases should help drive operating income growth above +30% Y/Y. NFLX will spend ~$20B on cash content & expects a ~1.1x cash to amort ratio in 2026. NFLX will not realize the full benefit of reduced M&A costs

Summary Investment Thesis and Valuation

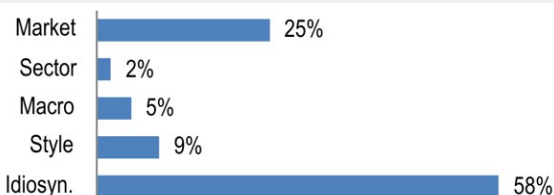

Investment Thesis

We believe NFLX is a key beneficiary and driver of the ongoing disruption of linear TV, with Netflix's content performing well globally and driving a virtuous circle of strong subscriber growth, more revenue, and growing profit. With 325M+ global subs, Netflix has a strong leadership position in a rationalizing streaming industry, & we expect NFLX to benefit from the global proliferation of Internet-connected devices and increasing consumer preference for on-demand video consumption over the Internet. NFLX's ad-supported tier should further expand NFLX's subscriber base while driving high-margin incremental revenue. We're projecting 2026-2028 CAGRs of +12% for FXN Revenue, +21% for Operating Income, +24% for GAAP EPS, & +23% for FCF, all of which support NFLX's premium valuation & our Overweight rating.

Valuation

Our December 2026 PT of $118 is based on ~30x 2027E GAAP EPS of $3.92. This is a premium to mega-cap tech peers trading at ~22x 2027E GAAP EPS on average, which we think is justified by NFLX's similar top-line growth & faster bottom-line growth.

when factoring in InterPositive, & there is some pull-forward on other deal-related fees. NFLX repurchased $1.3B of shares in 1Q compared to an average of $2.3B/quarter in 2025, though we expect elevated repurchases in 2Q & in the back half. We project 2026 OI margin of 31.7%, FCF of $12.7B ($12.5B guide, +34% Y/Y), & ~$9.3B buybacks. Overall, we're projecting low-mid teens %'s revenue growth in 2H w/expense growth slowing, resulting in significant operating income acceleration to 30%+ Y/Y. We project 2025-2028 CAGRs of +12% for FXN revenue, +21% for operating income, +24% for GAAP EPS, & +23% for FCF.

NFLX (Overweight, $118 PT)
Call Details	Thursday, 7/16 AMC w/4:45pm ET management livestream video at youtube.com/netflixir.
Investor Sentiment	Cautious. Our conversations suggest investor sentiment skews negative, w/concerns around engagement trends as NFLX will likely release its semi-annual engagement report concurrent with 2Q earnings. There is also focus on elevated churn following recent price increases, despite mgmt's commentary that retention trends were in-line with expectations at 1Q earnings. We believe investors expect NFLX to maintain 2026 Revenue guidance of $50.7B-$51.7B & OI margin guidance of 31.5%.
Our View Going In	Remain Positive & Believe Revenue Growth Is Not Fully Correlated w/Engagement Growth. We remain positive on NFLX's streaming leadership, improving Advertising execution, & cash generation, along w/profit acceleration in 2H. We do not believe engagement metrics provide a complete view of business trends and member satisfaction as NFLX's primary internal quality engagement metric hit an all-time high in 1Q, and we continue to view engagement growth as less correlated with revenue growth on a platform of 325M+ subs, & with additional lift from pricing & advertising.
Key Metrics	- JPMc 2Q Revenue of $12.58B (+12% FXN Y/Y) vs. mgmt's $12.57B guide & consensus $12.58B. - JPMc 2Q OI $4.11B (32.7% margin), vs. $4.11B guide & consensus $4.13B. - We believe investors expect 2Q revenue approaching $12.60B & OI of $4.12B+ based on our conversations. - JPMc 3Q Revenue of $13.05B (+13% FXN Y/Y) vs. consensus of $13.01B. - JPMc 3Q OI $4.30B (33.0% margin) vs. consensus $4.37B. - Factoring in less favorable FX, we believe investors expect 3Q guidance for revenue of $12.90B-$12.95B & OI of $4.30B-$4.35B based on our conversations. - JPMc 2026 Revenue of $51.7B (+13% FXN), vs. mgmt's $50.7B-$51.7B guide & consensus of $51.4B. - JPMc 2026 Op margin of 31.7%, vs. mgmt's 31.5% guide & consensus of 31.6%. - JPMc 2026 FCF of $12.7B, vs. mgmt's ~$12.5B guide & consensus of $13.1B. We believe investors expect 2026 revenue of $51.5B+, OI margin of ~31.5%, & FCF of ~$13B based on our conversations.
Key Topics	Engagement. Engagement growth is in focus given 1H25 +1%, 2H25 +2%, 1Q26 +2%. Expectations for 2Q26 are likely in the +2-3% range. Content. Key releases include Little House on the Prairie (7/9 debut, book-based), On Purpose with Jay Shetty (7/13 debut, video podcast), The Hawk (7/16 debut, Will Ferrell), Ransom Canyon (7/23 debut, returning series), One Hundred Years of Solitude P2 (8/5, returning series), & Outer Banks S5 (8/20 debut, returning series). Advertising. The Ad tier has 250M+ MAVs & accounts for 60%+ of all new subs in ads countries. NFLX is also expanding into 15 new countries in 2027 (vs. current 12 ad markets). We project Ad revenue of $3.1B in 2026 (~double Y/Y) & $5.3B in 2027 (+72% Y/Y). Price Increases. We estimate US price increases will drive ~$1.7B+ annualized revenue off the 2025 base & contribute ~250bps of growth in 2026, w/further upside from int'l price increases. Revenue Growth. NFLX's 2026 revenue growth guide of +12%-14% (+11%-13% FXN) is supported by sub growth, pricing, & advertising. We project 2026 Revenue growth of +13% FXN Y/Y, including Subs +8% & FXN ARM +4%. M&A. Press reports suggest that NFLX has expressed interest in buying Roku & Lionsgate, & it is now also mentioned in NBCU discussions as well. However, we believe incremental M&A interest would increase concerns around organic growth. Profit & Capital Allocation. The shape of 2026 operating income growth is lumpy w/content timing leading to higher amortization in 1H, but 2H26 expense growth should decelerate materially and price increases should help drive 30%+ operating income growth. Newer Verticals. NFLX launched vertical video & will integrate 3P publisher content starting in August.

Market Share Analysis & Industry

- Nielsen’s “The Gauge” estimates that streaming’s share of overall US Total Usage of Television (TUT) increased +380bps Y/Y in April to 47.6%, ahead of Cable (21.6%) and Broadcast (19.9%). NFLX’s share increased +30bps Y/Y to 7.8% of TUT, below YouTube (13.4%), but above Disney+ (5.0%) and Prime Video (4.2%), among other services.
- Take: Streaming is approaching ~50% of US TV time & continues to capture share from Cable & Broadcast. We remain bullish on the secular shift toward OTT video streaming & believe that NFLX has strong leadership within a rationalizing streaming industry. We’re positive on Netflix’s potential to become global TV as it deepens penetration of the ~800M+ global CTV HHs.

Investment Thesis, Valuation and Risks

Netflix Inc (Overweight; Price Target: $118.00)

Investment Thesis

We believe NFLX is a key beneficiary and driver of the ongoing disruption of linear TV, with Netflix's content performing well globally and driving a virtuous circle of strong subscriber growth, more revenue, and growing profit. With 325M+ global subs, Netflix has a strong leadership position in a rationalizing streaming industry & we expect NFLX to benefit from the global proliferation of Internet-connected devices and increasing consumer preference for on-demand video consumption over the Internet. NFLX's ad-supported tier should further expand NFLX's subscriber base while driving high-margin incremental revenue. We're projecting 2026-2028 CAGRs of +12% for FXN Revenue, +21% for Operating Income, +24% for GAAP EPS, & +23% for FCF, all of which support NFLX's premium valuation & our Overweight rating.

Valuation

Our December 2026 PT of $118 is based on ~30x 2027E GAAP EPS of $3.92. This is a premium to mega-cap tech peers trading at ~22x 2027E GAAP EPS on average, which we think is justified by NFLX's similar top-line growth & faster bottom-line growth.

Risks to Rating and Price Target

Risks to downside include: 1) Advertising efforts do not drive subscriber & revenue upside; 2) Core subscriber growth slows, limiting NFLX's ability to unlock its TAM; 3) NFLX does not efficiently balance top line with growth investments, limiting operating margin expansion & FCF; 4) Video streaming is a competitive industry with low switching costs—key competitors include Disney+ (including Hulu/ESPN+ bundle), Prime Video, Max, Apple TV+, etc.; & 5) Less traditional valuation support vs. large cap tech peers with lack of visibility into near-term subscriber trends.

The chart(s) show J.P. Morgan's continuing coverage of the stocks; the current analysts may or may not have covered it over the entire period.
J.P. Morgan ratings or designations: OW = Overweight, N= Neutral, UW = Underweight, NR = Not Rated

Explanation of Equity Research Ratings, Designations and Analyst(s) Coverage Universe:

J.P. Morgan uses the following rating system: Overweight (over the duration of the price target indicated in this report, we expect this stock will outperform the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst's, or the Research Analyst's team's, coverage universe); Neutral (over the duration of the price target indicated in this report, we expect this stock will perform in line with the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst's, or the Research Analyst's team's, coverage universe); and Underweight (over the duration of the price target indicated in this report, we expect this stock will underperform the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst's, or the Research Analyst's team's, coverage universe). NR is Not Rated. In this case, J.P. Morgan has removed the rating and, if applicable, the price target, for this stock because of either a lack of a sufficient fundamental basis or for legal, regulatory or policy reasons. The previous rating and, if applicable, the price target, no longer should be relied upon. An NR designation is not a recommendation or a rating. Some stocks under coverage have a rating but no price target; in these cases, we expect the stock will outperform/perform in line/underperform the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst's, or the Research Analyst's team's, coverage universe of the relevant duration of the region. In our Asia (ex-Australia and ex-India) and U.K. small- and mid-cap Equity Research, each stock's expected total return is compared to the expected total return of a benchmark country market index, not to those Research Analysts' coverage universe. If it does not appear in the Important Disclosures section of this report, the certifying Research Analyst's coverage universe can be found on J.P. Morgan's Research website, <https://www.jpmorganmarkets.com>.
