Resilient performance amid sector slowdown

2Q26 sales momentum outperforms sector, indicating business resilience; reiterate Buy

2Q26 sales weakened q-q, but still outperformed peers

ANTA announced a set of solid 2Q26 operating data (17 July): the ANTA core and FILA brands' sales increased by low-single-digit% (LSD%) and LSD% y-y, respectively, in 2Q26, while other brands' sales grew 25-30% y-y. Although ANTA, like its other peers, experienced a slowdown of sales momentum in 2Q26 (Fig. 1), its sales outperformed the sportswear sector, indicating the resilience of ANTA's multi-brand strategy and solid operational capability, in our view. For 1H26, the ANTA core/ FILA/ all other brands recorded y-y sales growth of mid-single-digit% (MSD%)/ MSD%/ 35-40%, on track to achieve its full-year sales targets. We maintain our FY26F full-year revenue/earnings estimates for ANTA, but cut our target price to HKD89.90, based on a reduced target F12M P/E of 17.5x in line with the derating of the sportswear sector. With that said, ANTA remains our preferred name in the sportswear sector, given its exposure to structural growth opportunities in the long term and attractive valuation levels.

Operational adjustments evident on multiple fronts

ANTA has been adjusting operations across its brand portfolios, amid sales slowdown of the sportswear sector as well as increasing competition from niche segment leaders; such adjustments include the recent change of ANTA core brand's CEO, repositioning of ANTA SV/Super ANTA stores and introduction of the mega store format of ANTA Market in Shenyang/Shanghai, and the gradual rollout of new stores/products of the Jack Wolfskin brand. We believe these efforts should help the ANTA core brand to defend its market share in the mass market segment (e.g., online sales of the ANTA core brand recorded double-digit% y-y growth in 2Q26 after the product/channel adjustments since 3Q25). On the other hand, brands like DESCENTE and KOLON are still delivering solid growth thanks to their training/outdoor exposure.

Maintain Buy; target price cut to HKD89.90 (implied upside of 21.2%)

We decrease our target price to HKD89.90 (vs. HKD125.00 previously) based on a lowered target F12M P/E of 17.5x (at a 35% premium to our F12M P/E of Li Ning [2331 HK, Neutral], considering ANTA's leading position in the sportswear sector, in our view). ANTA now trades at an attractive 15.1x FY26F P/E (EPS: CNY4.47); maintain Buy.

Target Price

A Target Price, if discussed, indicates the analyst's forecast for the share price with a 12-month time horizon, reflecting in part the analyst's estimates for the company's earnings. The achievement of any target price may be impeded by general market and macroeconomic trends, and by other risks related to the company or the market, and may not occur if the company's earnings differ from estimates.
