Cutting Topsports/Pou Sheng estimates to reflect the termination of Nike online sales from CY2027

Topsports and Pou Sheng announced that Nike will terminate the companies' online platform sales of NIKE products in ML China from January 1, 2027. The affected business represented around 22% of Topsports' FY2/2026 group revenue and 15% of Pou Sheng's FY2025 group revenue. Topsports expects a material near-term negative impact, while Pou Sheng noted that the affected business made no significant contribution to group profitability; both companies will continue to cooperate with Nike on offline sales.

For Topsports and Pou Sheng, we revise down Topsports' FY2/27-29E sales and net income by 6-21% and 8-35% respectively; and cut Pou Sheng's FY27-28E sales and net income by 14% and 7-9% respectively to reflect the removal of Nike online sales from CY2027. We believe Nike's channel reform could continue to impact its sales in China which will impact Topsports and Pou Sheng's earnings in the near-term. We maintain Buy on Pou Sheng for manageable earnings impact and undemanding valuation, and Neutral on Topsports on already significant correction (share price down ~24% today, and down ~44% since the news out) and attractive dividend yield of 13% on our estimates. TP for Pou Sheng is maintained at HK$0.49 (7x 2026E P/E unchanged) and that for Topsports is cut to HK$1.2 on 8X FY2/28E PE (from 10X FY2/27 PE) reflecting the larger earnings impact.

For sportswear brands, we believe this could offer opportunities for other brands including Anta and Li Ning as Nike is still the largest sports brand in China with c.16% market share in 2025. Having said that, we will need to closely monitor Nike's strategy on the potential inventory management from these online channels which could lead to a more promotional environment, which could potentially serve as downside risks on margins to all the brands. Maintain Buy on Anta and Li Ning.

Background: The issue first surfaced in mid-June, when public news reports suggested that NIKE might terminate its online distributorship arrangements in mainland China from January 1, 2027. Topsports responded on June 25 that it had not received any official notice, while Pou Sheng did not publicly respond at the time. On Nike's FY4Q26 earnings call on June 30, management did not confirm any specific change, but reiterated plans to elevate China's online and offline marketplace, improve full-price realization and work closely with local partners.

Goldman Sachs does and seeks to do business with companies covered in its research reports. As a result, investors should be aware that the firm may have a conflict of interest that could affect the objectivity of this report. Investors should consider this report as only a single factor in making their investment decision. the impact still came larger than what the market expected, based on our conversation with investors. We see downside risks to both Topsports and Pou Sheng's earnings in CY27-28 given the 22%/15% sales exposure; but the magnitude of the profit impact is different. According to both mgmts, Topsports mentioned earlier that the online margin is higher than group level, while Pou Sheng indicated that online sales are margin-dilutive given the substantial discount.

Thus, we revise down Topsports' FY2/27-29E sales and net income by 6-21% and 8-35% respectively; and cut Pou Sheng's FY27-28E sales and net income by 14% and 7-9% respectively. The assumptions reflect the removal of the Nike online sales from both companies, higher GPM given online sales carries lower margin so reduced online mix will drive blended GPM, and company's continued cost optimization. We believe both companies will continue to explore business opportunities and potential support with Nike though the clarity is uncertain. In the meantime, both companies have been aggressively expanding the emerging brands to drive better sales as consumer preference becomes more diverged; the event could push both companies to push further on expanding brand portfolio.

On valuation, we maintain Buy on Pou Sheng for manageable earnings impact and undemanding valuation, and Neutral on Topsports on already significant correction (share price down ~24% today, and down~44% since the news out on Jun 19) and attractive dividend yield of 13% on our estimates. TP for Pou Sheng is maintained at HK$0.49 (7x 2026E P/E unchanged) and that for Topsports is cut to HK$1.2 on 8X FY2/28E PE (from HK$2.20, 10X FY2/27 PE) as we lowered the multiple to reflect heightened uncertainty of earnings outlook due to the Nike's impact, and roll over to FY2/28E earnings given the impact largely affect FY2/28E

For sportswear brands, on the positive side, we see opportunities for other brands given Nike's channel strategies reform will drag near-term sales and Nike remains the largest sports brands in China with c.16% market share in 2025, though we need to closely monitor the potential deteriorating promotion activities that will drag the margins. Maintain Buy on Anta and Li Ning.

GS Factor Profile

The Goldman Sachs Factor Profile provides investment context for a stock by comparing key attributes to the market (i.e. our universe of rated stocks) and its sector peers. The four key attributes depicted are: Growth, Financial Returns, Multiple (e.g. valuation) and Integrated (a composite of Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple). Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple are calculated by using normalized ranks for specific metrics for each stock. The normalized ranks for the metrics are then averaged and converted into percentiles for the relevant attribute. The precise calculation of each metric may vary depending on the fiscal year, industry and region, but the standard approach is as follows:

Growth is based on a stock's forward-looking sales growth, EBITDA growth and EPS growth (for financial stocks, only EPS and sales growth), with a higher percentile indicating a higher growth company. Financial Returns is based on a stock's forward-looking ROE, ROCE and CROCI (for financial stocks, only ROE), with a higher percentile indicating a company with higher financial returns. Multiple is based on a stock's forward-looking P/E, P/B, price/dividend (P/D), EV/EBITDA, EV/FCF and EV/Debt Adjusted Cash Flow (DACF) (for financial stocks, only P/E, P/B and P/D), with a higher percentile indicating a stock trading at a higher multiple. The Integrated percentile is calculated as the average of the Growth percentile, Financial Returns percentile and (100% - Multiple percentile).

Financial Returns and Multiple use the Goldman Sachs analyst forecasts at the fiscal year-end at least three quarters in the future. Growth uses inputs for the fiscal year at least seven quarters in the future compared with the year at least three quarters in the future (on a per-share basis for all metrics).

For a more detailed description of how we calculate the GS Factor Profile, please contact your GS representative.

M&A Rank

Across our global coverage, we examine stocks using an M&A framework, considering both qualitative factors and quantitative factors (which may vary across sectors and regions) to incorporate the potential that certain companies could be acquired. We then assign a M&A rank as a means of scoring companies under our rated coverage from 1 to 3, with 1 representing high (30%-50%) probability of the company becoming an acquisition target, 2 representing medium (15%-30%) probability and 3 representing low (0%-15%) probability. For companies ranked 1 or 2, in line with our standard departmental guidelines we incorporate an M&A component into our target price. M&A rank of 3 is considered immaterial and therefore does not factor into our price target, and may or may not be discussed in research.

Ratings, coverage universe and related definitions

Buy (B), Neutral (N), Sell (S) Analysts recommend stocks as Buys or Sells for inclusion on various regional Investment Lists. Being assigned a Buy or Sell on an Investment List is determined by a stock's total return potential relative to its coverage universe. Any stock not assigned as a Buy or a Sell on an Investment List with an active rating (i.e., a stock that is not Rating Suspended, Not Rated, Early-Stage Biotech, Coverage Suspended or Not Covered), is deemed Neutral. Each region manages Regional Conviction Lists, which are selected from Buy rated stocks on the respective region's Investment Lists and represent investment recommendations focused on the size of the total return potential and/or the likelihood of the realization of the return across their respective areas of coverage. The addition or removal of stocks from such Conviction Lists are managed by the Investment Review Committee or other designated committee in each respective region and do not represent a change in the analysts' investment rating for such stocks.

Total return potential represents the upside or downside differential between the current share price and the price target, including all paid or anticipated dividends, expected during the time horizon associated with the price target. Price targets are required for all covered stocks. The total return potential, price target and associated time horizon are stated in each report adding or reiterating an Investment List membership.

Coverage Universe: A list of all stocks in each coverage universe is available by primary analyst, stock and coverage universe at <https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html>.

Not Rated (NR). The investment rating, target price and earnings estimates (where relevant) are removed pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when Goldman Sachs is acting in an advisory capacity in a merger or in a strategic transaction involving this company, when there are legal, regulatory or policy constraints due to Goldman Sachs' involvement in a transaction, and in certain other circumstances. Early-Stage Biotech (ES). An investment rating and a target price are not assigned pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when this company has neither a drug, treatment or medical device that has passed a Phase II clinical trial nor a license to distribute a post-Phase II drug, treatment or medical device. Rating Suspended (RS). Goldman Sachs Research has suspended the investment rating and price target for this stock, because there is not a sufficient fundamental basis for determining an investment rating or target price. The previous investment rating and target price, if any, are no longer in effect for this stock and should not be relied upon. Coverage Suspended (CS). Goldman Sachs has suspended coverage of this company. Not Covered (NC). Goldman Sachs does not cover this company.
