Offshore marketing feedback: focus on policy/sentiment inflection while fundamental recovery to take time; looking for differentiated stock ideas

We met numerous offshore investors during our marketing trip in Singapore and Hong Kong over the past week post our Consumer Staple Preview/Corp Day, discussing China consumption, staples subsector pecking orders and key stock ideas. Investor feedback indicated that the weak 2Q trends were well expected, and expectations have been lowered for 2H26. Both L-T/momentum investors are more agile in terms of adjusting/rotating positions, and are alert for any sector rotation/policy direction that may serve as catalysts for sentiment inflection into 3Q26 on staple sectors, despite a general belief that a fundamental recovery will likely still take time.

Investors are looking for differentiated stock ideas: On the single-stock front, Mengniu, Busy Ming/Wanchen, Nongfu, Haitian-H, Moutai were still the most discussed stocks during our marketing trip, while Yihai/Gujiang are perceived as more differentiated stock ideas. Sector preference: Investors generally agree with our sector preference of Condiments (resilience/share gain) and Dairy (S/D rebalance), while they still sit on sideline for beer.

- 1) Mengniu is well owned by both value funds/HFs based on our marketing feedback, while the key focus remains on the S/D rebalancing outlook in 2H26 and the key concern is around scope for related tax adjustments for UHT milk/fresh milk (see our illustrative tax sensitivity), and future change in the effective tax rate.
- 2) Structural high-growth story: Busy Ming/Wanchen are still relatively under owned by LO funds with concerns on the sustainability of store UE/store open pace (store open beat in 1H26), with discussion was mostly on the competition landscape (esp. Subsidies), while some investors remain cautious that subsidy levels will go up in 2H26 to sustain the store open pace by both parties. That said, investors generally agreed that valuations at 10~12x on mid-term earnings are reasonable levels to add positions.
- 3) High quality leaders: Haitian-H/Nongfu: Investors generally have confidence that Haitian-H will sustain HSD% topline growth showing better resilience in 2Q26 amid macro/on-trade weakness (despite sequential slowdown in 2Q26), while its HK share buyback + yield supports a c.9% total shareholder return; Nongfu is widely discussed in comparison vs. Eastroc/Tingyi/UPC: while investors like Nongfu's capability to develop new categories and still strong growth from sugar-free tea Oriental Leaf, the key concerns are mainly on the slowdown in bottled water and cost trends (ie. Jasmine).

- 4) For spirits, some investors are still interested in the bottoming-out opportunity for the spirits sector, with Moutai trading at 19x/17x 2026E/27E P/E with 4.2% yield, while questions/debate mainly focused on 1) concerns on 2Q26 results: we look for -3%/-35%/+4% NP yoy for Moutai/Gujing/King's Luck in 2Q26, marking the trough of 2026; 2) if the "worst is over" story plays out in 3Q26 (lapping low base of anti-graft): we observe early signs of wholesale price stabilization and expect healthier inventory levels post 2Q destocking. Meanwhile, Feitian's wholesale price trend will be the key to monitor into MAF (Mid Autumn Festival).
- 5) Yihai- more differentiated stock idea: some LO investors agree that Yihai's operation turnaround this year is still underappreciated, with overseas sales growing at 35% YTD amounting to c. 9~10% of Yihai's total sales, and domestic 2C sales bearing fruit from channel reforms.

Meanwhile, policy remains a key focus: the hope for any specific consumption stimulus measures remains low among offshore investors based on our marketing feedback; however, as expectation is already fairly low with light positioning in the consumer sector, investors are alert for any policy direction change. Some investors are surprised by the low level of discussion on China's 15th FYP for Expanding Consumption released in the night of 13 July (targets for total retail sales of consumer goods to reach around RMB60tn by 2030, up from RMB50.1tn in 2025, implying a 3.7% annualized nominal growth rate during the 15th FYP period; vs. up 1.3% in 6M26), but also admit that the market needs to see more concrete measures (instead of high-level policy) to gain confidence.

GS Factor Profile

The Goldman Sachs Factor Profile provides investment context for a stock by comparing key attributes to the market (i.e. our universe of rated stocks) and its sector peers. The four key attributes depicted are: Growth, Financial Returns, Multiple (e.g. valuation) and Integrated (a composite of Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple). Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple are calculated by using normalized ranks for specific metrics for each stock. The normalized ranks for the metrics are then averaged and converted into percentiles for the relevant attribute. The precise calculation of each metric may vary depending on the fiscal year, industry and region, but the standard approach is as follows:

Growth is based on a stock's forward-looking sales growth, EBITDA growth and EPS growth (for financial stocks, only EPS and sales growth), with a higher percentile indicating a higher growth company. Financial Returns is based on a stock's forward-looking ROE, ROCE and CROCI (for financial stocks, only ROE), with a higher percentile indicating a company with higher financial returns. Multiple is based on a stock's forward-looking P/E, P/B, price/dividend (P/D), EV/EBITDA, EV/FCF and EV/Debt Adjusted Cash Flow (DACF) (for financial stocks, only P/E, P/B and P/D), with a higher percentile indicating a stock trading at a higher multiple. The Integrated percentile is calculated as the average of the Growth percentile, Financial Returns percentile and (100% - Multiple percentile).

Financial Returns and Multiple use the Goldman Sachs analyst forecasts at the fiscal year-end at least three quarters in the future. Growth uses inputs for the fiscal year at least seven quarters in the future compared with the year at least three quarters in the future (on a per-share basis for all metrics).

M&A Rank

Across our global coverage, we examine stocks using an M&A framework, considering both qualitative factors and quantitative factors (which may vary across sectors and regions) to incorporate the potential that certain companies could be acquired. We then assign a M&A rank as a means of scoring companies under our rated coverage from 1 to 3, with 1 representing high (30%-50%) probability of the company becoming an acquisition target, 2 representing medium (15%-30%) probability and 3 representing low (0%-15%) probability. For companies ranked 1 or 2, in line with our standard departmental guidelines we incorporate an M&A component into our target price. M&A rank of 3 is considered immaterial and therefore does not factor into our price target, and may or may not be discussed in research.

Ratings, coverage universe and related definitions

Buy (B), Neutral (N), Sell (S) Analysts recommend stocks as Buys or Sells for inclusion on various regional Investment Lists. Being assigned a Buy or Sell on an Investment List is determined by a stock’s total return potential relative to its coverage universe. Any stock not assigned as a Buy or a Sell on an Investment List with an active rating (i.e., a stock that is not Rating Suspended, Not Rated, Early-Stage Biotech, Coverage Suspended or Not Covered), is deemed Neutral. Each region manages Regional Conviction Lists, which are selected from Buy rated stocks on the respective region’s Investment Lists and represent investment recommendations focused on the size of the total return potential and/or the likelihood of the realization of the return across their respective areas of coverage. The addition or removal of stocks from such Conviction Lists are managed by the Investment Review Committee or other designated committee in each respective region and do not represent a change in the analysts’ investment rating for such stocks.

Total return potential represents the upside or downside differential between the current share price and the price target, including all paid or anticipated dividends, expected during the time horizon associated with the price target. Price targets are required for all covered stocks. The total return potential, price target and associated time horizon are stated in each report adding or reiterating an Investment List membership.

Coverage Universe: A list of all stocks in each coverage universe is available by primary analyst, stock and coverage universe at <https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html>.

Not Rated (NR). The investment rating, target price and earnings estimates (where relevant) are removed pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when Goldman Sachs is acting in an advisory capacity in a merger or in a strategic transaction involving this company, when there are legal, regulatory or policy constraints due to Goldman Sachs' involvement in a transaction, and in certain other circumstances. Early-Stage Biotech (ES). An investment rating and a target price are not assigned pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when this company has neither a drug, treatment or medical device that has passed a Phase II clinical trial nor a license to distribute a post-Phase II drug, treatment or medical device. Rating Suspended (RS). Goldman Sachs Research has suspended the investment rating and price target for this stock, because there is not a sufficient fundamental basis for determining an investment rating or target price. The previous investment rating and target price, if any, are no longer in effect for this stock and should not be relied upon. Coverage Suspended (CS). Goldman Sachs has suspended coverage of this company. Not Covered (NC). Goldman Sachs does not cover this company.
